Newsletter April 2012

Greetings

Congratulations to Louise Jenkins and Nola Sindel – prize winners at the 2012 "A Brush with Verse".

Louise won the Shire Acquisition Award worth $1500 with her triptych "Turn Your Head", and the Feature Prize (artwork based on a Peter Allen verse) for her triptych "I See Kangaroo Up Ahead".

Nola won the Major Open Prize worth $500 with her watercolour "Territory Dreaming (Darwin Woollybutt)".

The exhibition will run until April 30 at the Forest to Furniture Gallery.

As part of Chris Humphreys' estate, a sale of items belonging to Chris is being held at his home in Tenterfield. As anybody who visited Chris knows, he had a house and workshop full of all sorts of interesting things. He had a large art collection, most of which is up for sale. There are also sculptures and other works by Chris, plus tools, books, bric-a-brac and much more.

The sale runs from April 3 until April 9.

The Tom Spence Project is getting close to a starting date. Ten stretcher frames have been made (thanks to Mike Roselt) and a start on stretching of canvas (with thanks to Chris Fletcher) will be made this week. After seeing the frames, and because winter is approaching we have decided that most of the work can be done at Tom's place. This will be more comfortable for the helpers, and particularly for Tom. And better for the paint.

Tom has a website featuring his upcoming exhibition at Davadi.

Provenance

I have attached an example of a provenance document which I provided with a painting I sold recently. It is recommended that something similar should be supplied (with receipts) whenever a work is sold or when ownership changes hands. Any suggestions to improve it would be appreciated.

Our "Shine:enihS" exhibition at the Texas Regional Art Gallery opens this week and runs until May 12. Ian Clutterbuck and I delivered the works (40plus) last Friday. Thanks to the members who made works available.

On and Off the Road Ian Smith

A Gold Coast City Art Gallery travelling exhibition

Ian Smith is a senior Australian artist born in Cairns and now living in Brisbane. This exhibition features large scale paintings and drawings made since 2001 that deal with his fascination with the imagery and experiences of being on the road, in particular the many trips that he has undertaken within Queensland driving between Cairns and Brisbane and beyond. Ian Smith On and Off the Road features 39 of Smith's paintings including memorable images. Accompanying the exhibition is a short film on the artist by director Alex Chomicz and a 48 page catalogue with essay by Curator Virginia Rigney. (worth seeing - ed.)

Big Time Gallery

"From Then Till Now"

A Retrospect of Five Years of Art School by Christine Spedding

Until April 23

Christine Spedding, having just completed her Advanced Diploma of Fine Art, is now in her first year of Ceramics at Lismore TAFE. Whilst studying art for the five years, Christine has been exposed to many differing mediums and techniques, won numerous awards, has had excellent sales and regular media attention. This exhibition is a retrospective journey through the progression of her learning; it shows the limited abilities of a first year acolyte through to the finesse of a graduation student.

At our last meeting it was decided to have at least three meetings per year at sites closer to Stanthorpe. The SRAG (with permission of Penelope) will be the usual choice but if anyone would like to host a meeting please let us know (particularly if you have a studio that might be of interest). April, July and October are months for these meetings in 2012.

From Penelope's newsletter

"The weekend of the Apple and Grape, the Gallery had 150 visitors on the Friday, 1,594 people on the Saturday, and finally 962 on the Sunday".

G.W. Bot, Muses, watercolour and graphite on Colombe paper, 110 x 120cm.

Next Meeting at the Stanthorpe Regional Art Gallery at 8:30 am EST on Saturday April 21.

Everyone is welcome, and for those who haven't finished their small painting please do so. If you can't make the meeting, give it to someone who will be there. The theme for the month is "chocolate".
