Newsletter February 2012

Greetings

Our new logo is above and the new brochure (in black and white) is at the printers.

2012 is shaping up for a busy year (at least for the first half). After the local Tenterfield and Stanthorpe Shows, we have the Stanthorpe Art Prize, a Borderline show in Texas, Art in the Mill, A Brush with Verse, and a possible major Borderline exhibition at Forest to Furniture.

Our 2011 Christmas Party was a great day, much enjoyed by all who attended. Many thanks to Sue Jurd for the concept and arrangements, and to Graeme Schreiber at the Bush Rock Gallery, and Eva and Bent Rasmussen, for sharing their workplaces. Also thanks to Lynne at Jennings Hotel (which is 90 years old this year) for a beaut lunch. A gallery/studio visit or two followed by a tasty lunch is a great way to spend a day, and perhaps we should do it more often, and not just at Christmas. Suggestions of places to visit are appreciated.

Congratulations to Linda Nye who has a full article, based on her working method, published in the February "Australia Artist" magazine.

And, congratulations to the twelve Borderline members who practically scooped the pool at Tenterfield Show. Louise Jenkins' drawing "After the Fish" was named Champion. The results with the judge's comments will be placed in the member's only section of our website.

By the time you receive this Tenterfield Show will be over but remember Stanthorpe Show follows Friday 3 and Saturday 4. Contact Peter With 02 4681 3360 to enter.

Sculpture Workshop with Maggie Brockie – February 18, 19 at the Stanthorpe Pottery Club, Wallangarra Road, Stanthorpe.

An opportunity to further develop your sculptural techniques and focus on streamlining your design by using the approach that 'less is more'.

The cost to members of SPC or Warwick Pottery Club is $60 for 2 days. For non members - $90.

Priority will be given to SPC members. Full payment required by Wednesday February 8.

Cheques to the Treasurer, Stanthorpe Pottery Club Inc, PO Box 11, Stanthorpe 4380 Call Maggie on 02 4683 4210 or email wildlife@halenet.com.au for more information, but don't delay as spaces are filling quickly.

Maggie is embarking on March 18 for a two month overseas adventure which includes two weeks in Morocco participating in Janna Pameijer's Creative Journey.

A Brush with Verse with total prize money of $4000 (the December Newsletter has details of prizes) will be held at the Forest to Furniture Gallery. The exhibition / Awards night will be Friday March 30 with entries due by March 10 and works delivered by March 17.

The exhibition will run until April 30

For more information and/or if anyone would like to lend a hand with organizing the exhibition, Gail would love to hear from you.

Jean Braid is holding workshops to help people prepare works for A Brush with Verse. This is not a formally tutored workshop, though Jean (an experienced artist and art teacher) will introduce the sessions, including discussion of previous entries, and be on hand (whilst working on her own entries) to help people develop their ideas. Workshops days:- Tuesday February 7, Thursday February 9 (one only needs to attend one day) and follow up workshop Monday February 20. Sessions run from 10:30am until 3:00pm.

These workshops are FREE and Jean will also provide lunch, tea, coffee (and art equipment for beginners). Please let Jean know if you are going to attend.

Her studio is at "Bellevue Park" 142 Bellevue Street, Tenterfield (off the Bruxner Highway to Casino. For more information and/or confirmation phone Jean on 02 6736 4290.

Jean also is planning a small art and gift gallery in an empty shop she owns in the High Street (which she sees as complementing Forest to Furniture rather than being in competition).

The Texas Art Gallery has had a cancellation in its 2012 calendar and has asked Borderline if we could hold an exhibition in its place. We have agreed and will mount an exhibition from March 31 to May 12, to be called "Shine:eniHS" (if anyone knows how to write in reverse, please let me know). exhibition at Texas. At such short notice, we are not expecting new works, so please let me know if you can supply some works.

Works are not for sale via the gallery, but prospective buyers can directly contact the artist or their agent – so there is no commission. Works can be left with John Donnelly or Ian Clutterbuck for delivery to Texas, and collected from same at the exhibitons end sale, but details to be left with the gallery so that prospective buyers can contact the artist. There is no commission. John and Ian will take works to Texas. Entry forms are available from Nola, Ian or myself. While this may not be a major show, it is a good opportunity to promote Borderline, and perhaps attract some new members.

Borderline is planning a major art show to be held to coincide with the Wintersong Carnival in Tenterfield (June 18 – 26). We are presently in discussion with Gail at Forest to Furniture. This could become an ideal permanent event, as Wintersong is a biennial event, and thus an exhibition would alternate with our biennial exhibition at SRAG.
