Newsletter September 2013

Greetings

By the time you read this, our SRAG show Looking Out: Looking In will have closed. The exhibition was certainly one of the best yet, with very favourable responses from everybody who saw it (I certainly didn't hear any negative comments). The 'old timers' might be able to point to a more successful exhibition long ago in the last century, but I doubt it. Sales were also excellent with at least 14 works sold. So, congratulations and thanks to all involved, and it looks like we will be invited to exhibit again in around two years time. Perhaps the hardest part was thinking up a catchy name – so please make a note of any ideas.

As there is a two year gap before the next Borderline exhibition, there was some discussion as to whether Borderline should do something in the interim. "ArtSong" in June 2012 was an attempt to fill this gap, and also have an exhibition in Tenterfield. It was not received with a lot of enthusiasm by members but this may have been largely because there was not enough time to prepare work. A independently run show (ie. without SRAG) or similar, takes a lot of work and time. What do you think?

Ten members attended the 2013 AGM, with the usual reluctance from members to take an active role. The outcome was:-
President – Shirley Caldwell
Vice-president – Chris Hangan
Secretary – Nola Sindel
Treasurer – Pam Docherty
Committee – Louis Jenkins, Maggie Brockie, Gail Wilson, Gail Galloway, John Donnelly.
Special Events Co-ordinator and Public Officer – Sue Jurd.

Web Manager – Louise Jenkins
Newsletter – John Donnelly

And I believe there are still some unfinancial members. If you are not sure of your status please contact Treasurer Pam Docherty at pamdocherty@hotmail.com

The Tenterfield Traveller

At the last meeting a sub-committee of Sue Jurd, Shirley Caldwell and Gail Galloway was formed to draft a plan for a second Tenterfield Traveller Workshop in 2014. An expanded program was suggested with Christine Porter returning plus perhaps two other workshops eg. sculpture and fibre. An alternative painting workshop with a very different style of artist eg Angus Nivison from Walcha, was also suggested.

New Markets in Tenterfield

A Ten FM Initiative

The response from potential stallholders to the inaugural Seasonal Boutique, Vintage and Providore Markets to be held undercover in The Memorial Hall Molesworth Street Tenterfield on Saturday November 16 has been excellent.

Borderline is investigating the possibility of having a stall, and it was decided to wait for the March 2014 market. For further information, or if you are interested in participating, contact Rebecca at info@tenfm.org.au or ring 02 6736 3444.

A Proposal for Seniors Week Workshops - from Sue Jurd

That Borderline organise a series of small workshops throughout the week of March 15 - 23, 2014

Sue is applying for a $1000 grant to help cover costs. Other costs would be covered by a small tuition fee. Tutors would be paid, and this would come from the grant.

The following are some suggested topics for workshops.

Silk Painting/dyeing – Sue

Botanical drawing – Nola, Shirley

Jewellery making - Pam

Painting

Sculpture- Maggie

Mixed Media

Textiles

Not only would this give senior citizens in Tenterfield the chance to participate in an art/craft activity, it would promote Borderline, and give Borderline artists the opportunity to expand their skills into the teaching area. If you have ideas for alternative workshops and/or would like to volunteer as a tutor, please contact Sue Jurd.

The Crisps Coaches Schools Art Expo 2013 showcases works from school students of all ages from our region. The theme this year is environmental art.

It's been a long time coming but the old gallery carpet is being replaced. As a result, the Gallery will be closed on Tuesday Sept 10 and Tuesday Sept 17.

The following exhibition will be QUILT!2 which highlights the work of 11 contemporary quilt artists. And perhaps is not what you would expect from something titled quilts.

The Gallery Library is now being included in the Southern Downs Regional Library Collection. Several books will remain for reference only.

Two Quotes

All works of art are more beautiful when they suggest something beyond themselves than when they end up being merely what they are.

Pattern contains the nature of nature.
